School Booters Post First Victory

Dansville High's varsity soccer team split last week's action with a win over LeRoy and a loss to Keshequa to give the Mustangs a 1-2 league record and a 1-5 overall record for the young season.

On Tuesday, Dansville gained its first victory of the year at LeRoy. Dansville gave up two early goals to LeRoy, the first second by senior exchange student Yogo Manjando and the second by Teklu Yikidego. Yikidego scored what would be LeRoy's final goal of the game. Ten minutes later Doug Everhart opened the scoring for Dansville taking a pass from Danny Hoerner and putting the ball past goalie Chris Mathias. Later in the period Hoerner took the pass from Everhart to score his first of the season and tie the game at two.

Muddy field conditions and great goaltending by Dansville's Graham Frazer kept the score tied for the remainder of regulation play. With just 30 seconds left in the first overtime, Hoerner again took the pass from Everhart to give the Mustangs the winning score. Dansville outshot LeRoy 33 to 17.

On Thursday, Dansville was host to Keshequa and the Indians came away with the 4-2 victory. All six goals of the game were scored by six different players as Mike Woods opened the scoring for Keshequa. Twenty minutes into the first half sophomore Kyle York scored his first goal of his varsity career to tie the score. Fullbacks Aaron Bridge, Adam Northrup, and Derek Stout then played outstanding defense to keep the score tied through the first half.

Jeff Howe of Keshequa opened the second half with a goal giving the Indians a 2-1 lead. Andy Jaimes then added the game winner three minutes later to make it 3-1. Dansville's Hoerner closed the gap with a 20-yard shot seven minutes later beating Keshequa goalie Mike Powers. Jim Mann then added an insurance goal with seven minutes to play to finish the scoring for the afternoon. Keshequa outshot the Mustangs 20-17.

Dansville travels to Livonia

Friday, then finishes the week at the Cohocton Sports Complex Saturday night against rival Wayland.

Junior Gridders Play in League

Dansville and Wayland Vince Lombardi League teams squared off Sunday but only one of the three contests was official—for technical reasons.

The Junior Mustang "C" team was a 30-8 winner in the regulation contest while the "B" and "A" squads played scrimmage games as the Wayland entries did not have enough eligible players on the roster.

Coach Bob Penta's "C" group was led by Shawn Schledorn who rushed for 170 yards and scored three touchdowns. Cheyne Rauber added two conversions and turned in a top defensive performance. Jason Young scored the other TD while Shannon Davidson had an interception and eight solo tackles. Jamie Pye scored the touchdown for Wayland and Shane Wolfanger added the points. The previous week, the "C" team played to a 6-6 tie against Bath. Cheyne Rauber scored the touchdown.

In the scrimmage, Dansville's "B" team came out on top 22-0. Dylan Penta, Zach Meyer and Brian Chizuk scored touchdowns. Penta also scored a two-point conversion and the team added points with a safety. The previous week, the "B" team defeated Bath as Ryan Henchen scored two TD's and Penta scored on a conversion pass.

The "A" team remained undefeated by downing Bath the previous Sunday. In the Wayland scrimmage, Richie Derrnenbacher scored two touchdowns and Chris Kreiley and Dan Dixon each had one. Coach Bill Blake cited Jeff
